Takapuna Grammar School

STUDENT NAME: ANA CLARA VIEIRA SCHLICKMANN
DATE OF BIRTH: 16 JULY 2003
PERIOD OF ATTENDANCE: 22 JULY TO 5 DECEMBER 2019
LEVEL/YEAR: 11

This is to confirm that Ana Clara has been an enrolled international student at Takapuna Grammar School. During her time at our school, she studied the following subjects:

SUBJECT: Year 11 English for Academic Purposes		Hours Studied Per Week : 4
Course Explanation	This course is designed to increase academic language, through the four skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening. Students will study and respond to a range of literature and learn to write academic essays.
Grade	3
Effort	2
Teacher Comment	Ana Clara is a very pleasant student who quietly got on with her class work. She has focussed on reading the English version of the novel The Hunger Games and has satisfactorily completed the accompanying workbook given to her. She is a sensitive student who has been diligent with her assigned classwork.

SUBJECT: Year 11 Mathematics		Hours Studied Per Week : 4
Course Explanation	Mathematics involves algebraic methods, equations, sketching and interpreting graphs; geometry, number problems, right angled-triangle problems, statistical methods and information, probabilities and solving problems using everyday objects.
Grade	4
Effort	4
Teacher Comment	Ana Clara shows responsibility and follows directions when they are given. She need continuous encouragement in Mathematics and does not seem to retain information for tests. With continuous revision of key concepts and increased participation in class she could gain better results in assessments.

SUBJECT: Year 12 Practical Physical Education		Hours Studied Per Week: 4
Course Explanation	This course is practically based designed for students who enjoy taking part in sport and outdoor education. The focus is sports performance and outdoor education.
Grade	3
Effort	3
Teacher Comment	Ana Clara is a co-operative and courteous student who continues to make pleasing progress. She has shown a satisfactory level of social responsibility. Ana Clara is continuing to develop her motor skills in practical lessons. She has demonstrated the ability to work well in small groups by using a good level of interpersonal skills.

SUBJECT: Year 11 Biology		Hours Studied Per Week: 4
Course Explanation	Biology involves people investigating a diverse range of topics eg evolution of humans, anatomy of organs and cells, development of vaccines and therapies and the growth of robust crops.
Grade	4
Effort	4
Teacher Comment	Ana Clara has made some progress with this course but has failed to make the most of the learning opportunities given to her. She has taken part in practical work and has completed some written work.
